

The Hungry Goldilocks by Liam Kindrick

Once upon a time, I lived in a cottage with two other bears.

One time, we were starving. So we cooked some porridge. Our porridge was too hot, so we went on a walk. Then a curious girl came and walked into our cottage. Then she ate our porridge! After that, she went upstairs and fell asleep. We all went upstairs and found her! She woke up and asked us for more food! After that, she ran away.
